This document entered on the docket sheet in compliance with Rule 58 and filed with the court on 12/13/05

12

(3) Expert Witness Depositions:

November 21, 2006

Filing Dispositive Motions:

January 22, 2007

Other Relevant Matters:

No depositions may be scheduled to occur after the discovery cutoff date without leave of Court. All motions, requests for admissions, or other filings that require a response must be filed sufficiently in advance of the discovery cutoff date to enable opposing counsel to respond by the time permitted by the Rules prior to that date.

Motions to compel discovery are to be filed and served by the discovery deadline or within 30 days of the default or the service of the response, answer or objection, which is the subject of the motion, if the default or the service of the response, answer or objection occurs within 30 days of the discovery deadline, unless the time for filing of such motion is extended for good cause shown, or the objection to the default, response, answer or objection shall be waived.

This case is set for ^{non-jury} ~~jury~~ ^{TMP} trial. The parties anticipate that trial of this matter will last 3-4 days. The pretrial order date, pretrial conference date, and trial date will be set by the presiding judge.

The parties are reminded that pursuant to Local Rule 11(a)(1)(A), all motions, except motions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12, 56, 59, and 60 shall be accompanied by a proposed order.

The parties have not consented to trial before the magistrate judge.

The possibility of settlement at this time appears to be unknown. The parties will jointly advise the Court on or before November 22, 2006 in a pleading to be filed in the same manner as other pleadings as to whether or not an agreement has been reached to utilize mediation. Any mediation must be completed on or before ten (10) days before the final pretrial conference; and the parties shall notify the Court of the results. Any decision to utilize mediation will not alter the deadlines established by this scheduling order.

This order has been entered after consultation with trial counsel pursuant to notice. Absent good cause shown, the scheduling dates set by this order will not be modified or extended.

IT IS SO ORDERED, on this 8 day of December 2005.
